Fellow us

Keeping us connected

Hello and Welcome!

“Fellow us” is the e-newsletter dedicated to Residential Colleges (RC) Fellows and other supporters of RCs. We hope to establish communications with you and keep you informed of RC events, milestones, and overall development.

In each issue we will feature an RC Fellow and his/her contributions to enriching residential life through RC events and other initiatives. Each RC will also announce her upcoming events which welcome the participation by or collaboration with RC Fellows.

Enjoy reading this e-newsletter and we welcome your feedback and suggestions!

Our Unique Affiliated Fellowship Scheme

To enrich residents' experience in the RCs, the Affiliated Fellowship Scheme was launched in 2018/19 with the aim to encourage and facilitate meaningful interaction between student residents and faculty. As of today, 64 faculty members have affiliated with a particular RC as a RC Fellow.

◀ Ms Cynthia CHAN (middle) from S H Ho Wellness College generously provided painting advice and guidance to all participants of Joint-RC Mid-Autumn Festival Celebration on 29 September 2020.

“I’m happy to see the other side of our students outside the classroom.”

VOICES FROM OUR RC FELLOW

Dr Annise LAM, Lecturer of the Department of English, joined HSUHK in January 2021 and affiliated with S H Ho Wellness College as a RC Fellow under the recommendation of RC Master Dr Paul FUNG.

As her first involvement in a joint-RC event, Annise supported the Joint-RC Mid-Autumn Festival

Celebration as the emcee with our Residential Student Leader (RSL), Ms Syreni SHEK, who is also a resident of S H Ho Wellness College. Annise reveals that “It is my first time to participate in an RC event and I am surprised by the overwhelming response from the residents. I’m glad to have the opportunity to work with a Residential Student Leader.” She adds, “I saw many happy faces at the event. It warms me!”

The Mid-Autumn Festival Celebration is not Annise’s first engagement with the RC. In fact, she had co-organised a Zentangle Workshop with S H Ho Wellness College and served as an interview panel of RSLs. “Although I do not live in the RCs, being an RC Fellow allows me to get in touch with the students.” She adds, “I’m happy to see the other side of our students outside the classroom.” Annise looks forward to co-hosting more RC events in the coming year.
